DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 6, lines 2-3, "said first arm is provided with an engagement part" is confusing. According to the disclosure, the "engagement recess" and the "engagement part" are formed on opposite parts (first arm and second arm) respectively for prohibiting relative rotation. It cannot be understood from the claim how the "recess" and the "engagement part", both being provided on the first arm, can perform engagement to prevent rotating with the second arm. Apparently, "first arm" of line 2 should have been "second arm".

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Lin (5,142,739). Note that Lin has a first and second arms (1A, 2A), a lock means (5), a retaining means (42), a lock biasing means (53). The retaining means and the lock means are all movable within a range.

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Messina et al. (3,825,290). Embodiments shown in figures 8-11 meet the invention as claimed. For example in figure 8, '290 has first arm (42), a second arm (50), a lock means (60), a retaining means (106). The retaining means and the lock means are all movable within a range.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 4 and 5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claims 6-9 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

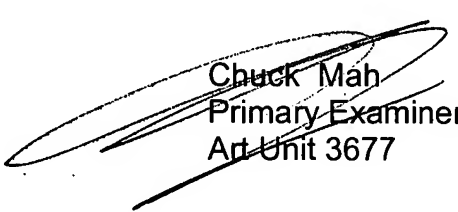

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
